Health investments and policies
Indicators concerning the state of health investment initiatives
Indicators concerning changes in the awareness and behavior of employees, etc.
Final target indicators for health-related indicators
Issues we want to resolve through health management
Health investment on various effects
Expansion of subsidies for health checkups
Maintenance (enhancement) of the industrial health staff system
Introduction of systems and review of infrastructure for the promotion of new workstyles
Encouragement for employees to undergo health checkups, all costs borne by the company
Thorough implementation of activities to encourage the taking of secondary tests
Thorough implementation of insurance guidance for physical high-risk individuals
Implementation of education and training (Physical health training, line care and self-care training)
Implementation of exercise events and the provision of healthy meals
Expansion of leave systems and promotion of taking of leave
Strengthening of the monitoring of work hours
Stress checks Intervention in high-stress departments
Percentage of employees undergoing health checkups
Activities to encourage the taking of secondary examinations
Improvement of the rate of insurance guidance for physical high-risk individuals
Improvement of the rate of participation in education and training
Improvement of lifestyle habits
Improvement of the rate of taking of leave
Reduction of overtime hours
Improvement of the rate of intervention and care departments
Improvement of the rate of taking of health checkups
Improvement of the rate of taking of secondary tests and the continuation of outpatient treatment
Improvement of lifestyle habits
Reduction of total work hours
Reduction of high-stress departments
Improvement of presenteeism (working while sick)
Prevention of absence from work or separation from work for reasons of health
Reduction of the rate of highly stressed people
Improvement of engagement
The “well-being” of each and every employee and the sustainable growth of the company